

SME MEMBERSHIP

Criteria

SME membership

SMEs with a turnover of less than £4M, which meet the business criteria below, and wish to be part of the trade association are eligible to join the UKspace SME Membership. SME members are not required to be members of ADS or techUK. The SME delivers a range of networking and business development opportunities and is supported by UKspace member companies and the Satellite Finance Network, working closely with the Satellite Applications Catapult.

Membership costs are modest and determined by company turnover, with a cap of £4M. The SME is managed by the Director on behalf of UKspace, the space trade association.

Please complete the application form in full. The UKspace Executive will review all applicants. You may be asked to submit additional information prior to a decision if additional clarity is required.
